(Start Belt #11)

SPEAKER: Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Senator Carpenter wouldn't a year, I would think though because of some of the ways they do process these things and because the states carry on, I would think a year would be more reasonable -

SENATOR CARPENTER: I move to amend mine to one year instead of six months.

SPEAKER: Well then you ask unanimous consent to make that a year, rather than six months. Any objections to that? Now is there any further discussion on Senator Carpenter's amendment to the bill? Are you ready for the question, all those in favor of the Carpenter amendment say aye, those opposed say no, the amendment is adopted. Now Mr. Clerk are there any further amendments to the bill?
